FOREWORD

We present this Myrialog as a fulfillment of what we feel is one of the fine traditions of our school.

The Class of 1960 has lived together, played together, and studied together. The twelve wonderful years were filled with precious moments from learning to playing hopscotch to receiving a diploma. These memories we have tried to recapture and record in the succeeding pages; they bring back memories to us, perhaps they will to you, too.

With this we invite you to turn the page . . .

VALENTINE DANCE

ALMA MATER

Faithful and true-hearted, Let us cheer our dear old High,
We revere her and defend her, and her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her united, Of her deeds we gladly tell,
Her colors streaming, Glad faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her that we all love so well.

Chorus

Joyous and ever loyal, Let us boost for our old High,
Let ev'ry heart sing, Let ev'ry voice ring,
There's no time to grieve or sigh.
It's ever onward, our course pursuing, May defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But, united, We will boost for her, our Old High School.

II

Honors she has taken, On the track and with the ball,
May she always rank the highest, May her colors never fall.
There's no other that can match her, When her team is on the field,
Her boys the fleetest, Her girls the sweetest.
Then here's a cheer for her, for her who ne'er will yield.

SCHOOL HISTORY

The Hill School, which is located on North College Street, was erected as a result of the consolidation of the early limestone school. The community library and the Hill School served as our educational institutions until the erection of our present high school.

Architect, Edward Z. Schell, and contractor, Andrew J. Fink, built our high school in 1915.

The members of the first board of directors were Dr. D. U. Wolff, George Uhrich, Ephriam Bleistein, John Schoener, and Harry Kline. We have had the following principals: J. J. Strahl, Ralph Davenport, Chester Hartzler, Henry Hollinger, Walter Richter, John Auld, and presently Harvey L. Nitrauer.

Engravings on the cornerstones of our school are: "Education is the cornerstone of success," and "Wisdom is the birth of freedom."

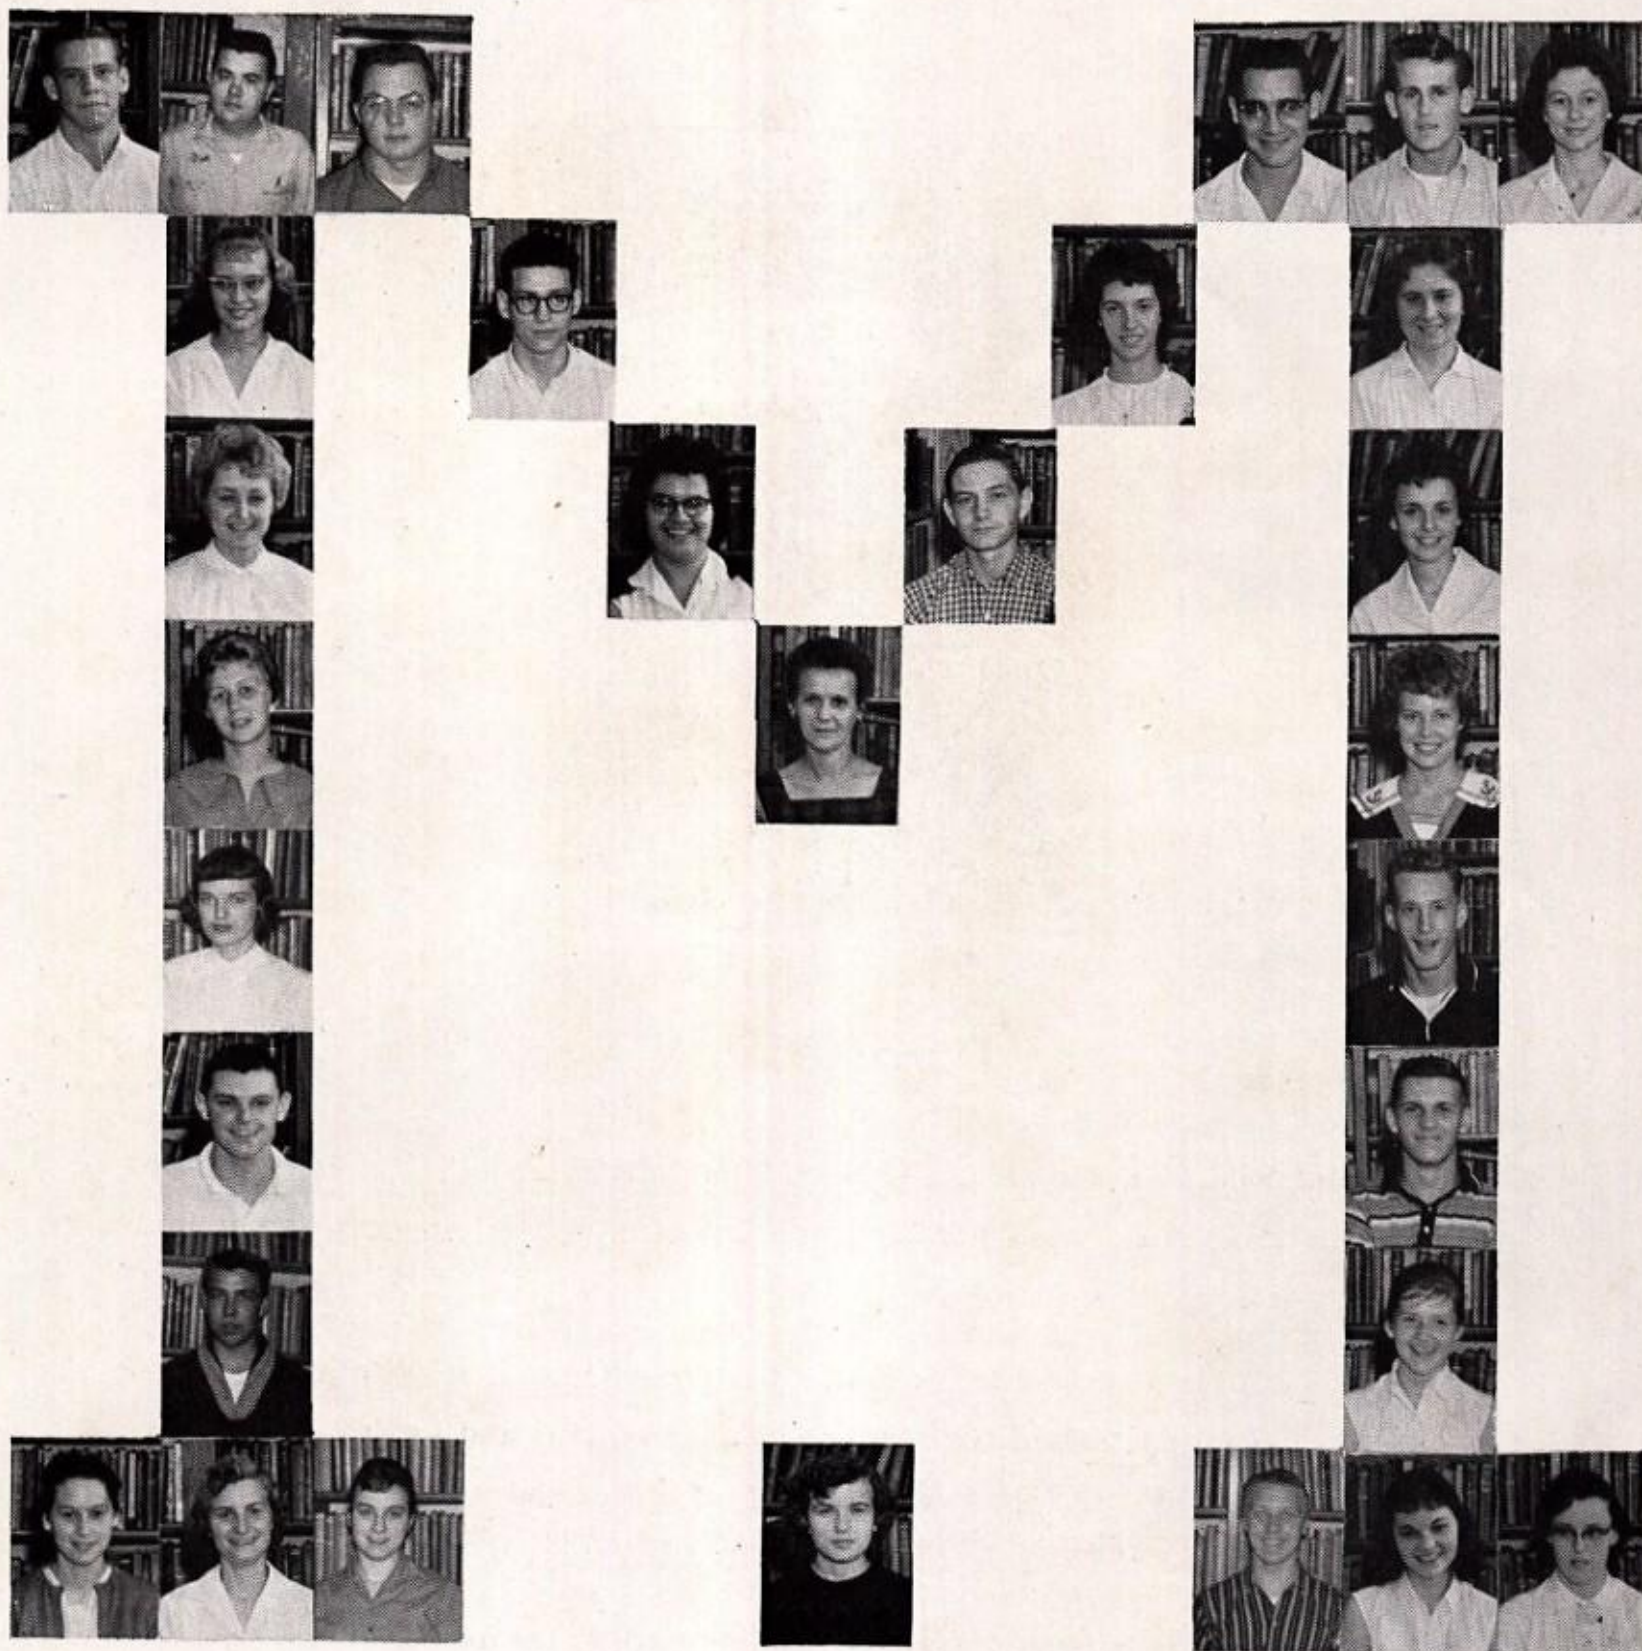

DEDICATION

We the class of 1960, are proud to dedicate our yearbook, The Myrialog, to Mr. Robert Hoffman, whose wise counsel, patience, and willingness to help us have been a source of inspiration.

In seventh grade he helped to guide us through our first year in new surroundings, and he has served as boys' physical education and health teacher for nine years. Mr. Hoffman also serves as coach of soccer and junior high basketball and in 1957 brought Myerstown High School the state soccer championship.

For his helpful instruction, for his unfailing efforts, for his humor and understanding, and for his good sportsmanship, we sincerely wish to thank him.

TRIBUTE

To Miss Mabel C. Immel, our capable and hardworking Senior advisor, who has directed us throughout our final year of high school, we pay this tribute.

Through her untiring efforts, she helped make a success of our Landis and Landis Club, our magazine campaign, the street fair, and our yearbook, thus insuring our graduation and our New York trip.

We truly appreciate Miss Immel's assistance and guidance, and the sacrifices she has made on our behalf.

CLASS SONG 1960

Lyrics: Kathryn Stauffer

Music: Sally Ressler

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in 3/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is simple and melodic, with a mix of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

We gath er now, our class mates dear, To sing a part ing song,
And think a gain of high school joys That in our minds now throng.
We add our num bers to the ranks Of grad u ates gone by,
And hymn the prais es loud and clear Of dear old Myers town High.

We think of teachers fond and true
And, though our ways may part,
They e'er will live in memories
Engraved upon each heart.
We cherish all the pleasant times
And friendships through the years;
For these will last, whate'er betide,
On pathways far and near.

We came together filled with joy,
And joyful may we leave,
For tears should never mar the hearts
Of those bless'd such as we.
In farewell, now, we clasp our hands
In never ending tie
Of loyalty to classmates true,
And dear old Myerstown High.

—Kathryn L. Stauffer

SENIOR MEMORIES

This, our Senior year, has been the busiest of our high school career. In addition to the usual studies we had to secure Landis and Landis members, present our class play "Almost Eighteen," sell magazines, and edit the Myrialog. After many trials and tribulations we were rewarded for our work with a three day trip to New York City. Then our final days together as the Class of "60" arrived. There was Class Day, Baccalaureate and finally that all-important Commencement.

Though our high school days are over, they will never be forgotten. In our minds there will always linger fond memories of M. H. S. as we explore new and broader horizons.

CLASS HISTORY

Once upon a time, around the year 1942, fifty-nine packages of joy were sent to earth via the stork express. These packages ranged in size, height, weight and physical characteristics, but their destiny was already charted for them. They were to become the honored class of 1960 of Myerstown High School.

In 1948 the class organized itself under the title, "The First Grade Terrors" and began its school career under the able guidance of Miss Loose and Mrs. Snively. The students were fascinated reading the exciting adventures of Alice and Jerry, and Jip. To add to the wonder of first grade was the Christmas operetta, featuring the beginners as the children of the Old Lady in a Shoe.

The second lap of the journey through school took the entire class to the "school on the hill" with the fire escape, the "battlefield," and the wonderful old maple tree (just right for playing house). Second grade was supervised by Mrs. Emrick and Mrs. Snively. This year the second grades became unofficial postmen with their own special Valentine post office. Health habits led to daily morning inspection of hair, teeth, fingernails and handkerchiefs.

Third grade, taught by Miss Schell and Mrs. Snively, resulted in the addition of English grammar and geography classes. School was beginning to seem more like "school" as the reading became more difficult and arithmetic definitely more complicated. Weather charts were kept, sand tables built and kept in ship-shape order, and the classroom library increased in size.

Tramp, tramp was the sound that echoed through the halls each morning as the flock of proud fourth graders marched to their new home with Mrs. Weaver on the second floor. To add to the excitement, they had the use of shiny new lockers. Lining the walls every Wednesday was an assortment of musical instruments, belonging to the new members of the Junior Band. What a thrill!

But school became more and more involved as Fourth grade led into fifth with Mrs. Snively. A new member, Renata Mundt, was added to the group, while Tom Honker made his extended visit to the "Sunshine State" of Florida. Book reports became a requirement, and every week the fishbowl had to be cleaned by some unsuspecting student.

Sixth grade! And the class became the revered "seniors" of the Hill School. What a year! The days were punctuated with such coveted tasks as answering the telephone, ringing the bell, carrying the milk cases, taking care of the library, and playing softball in the field behind the school. Chalk flew as Mr. Snively disciplined his most ingenious scholars. And after school hours, Barb Burkholder's parties started love a bloomin' and Cupid's arrows a flyin'. Judy Dinger and Andy Honker reigned as the Sweethearts of Sixth Grade in the official Valentine's Day celebration.

The next year we found the confident sixth graders as rather confused and frightened seventh graders, awed at the magnitude of their new gray stone school. With the help of Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Hoffman, they settled down to their new Junior High School life. Mr. Mitchell frequently conducted various after school sessions which were usually well attended. The year rolled around, filled with the peanuts, popcorn, and candy apples of the fair, a hilarious pantomime for an assembly program, and a new class called Guidance.

In eighth grade we found the busy spring salesmen selling soft drink at the fair under the direction of Mrs. Brightbill and Mrs. Shover. George Brightbill started his dramatic career in the play "G. for Gettysburg."

Onward they went and the young "sophisticates" finally were given the title of "freshmen." The Anvil Chorus became the key song in music class, and civics class was very colorful due to the many arguments they had with Mr Kugle. The highlight of the year was the trip to Gettysburg that was enjoyed by the whole class.

By the time tenth grade rolled around, the Sophomores were referring to their homerooms as cell blocks and their homeroom teachers as Wardens Jeffers and Kugle. The class was divided into the various courses: Business, learning penmanship and math (?) from Mr. Hauer; Ag, learning all about farming; Academic and General, learning a new and exciting language—Spanish. It was this year that the amazing score of 44 was attained at the class bowling party, and the Sophomores became the proud owners of flashy, green jackets.

Eleventh grade, usually "the quiet before the storm," turned out to be a very eventful year for the class of "60". During December a trip to the office made the eager students very proud as they received those shiny new rings. Much excitement was aroused as a shrill cry coming from Room 19 signaled the race between Darlene Miller and that little white mouse. After many nerve racking hours in that new Buick, they finally gained possession of a small card which gave them permission to drive (?) a car.

The Senior year is one of the most exciting years of any class's life. It was certainly so for the Class of 1960. Landis and Landis, magazines, the play, contests, and studies (!) kept them busy and on the run.

The senior year is one of the most exciting years of any class's life. It was certainly so beginning of farther education. For all it is only the gateway to a richer fuller life. The history books of the future are waiting to record the accomplishments of the present. Certainly there will be many.

PROPHECY

As we look into the future, we see travel by jet-powered planes, new wonder-drugs, and missile stations on the moon. At the same time, what are the members of the Class of '60 doing? The year is 1980, and we see that:

Scout Heilman is head counsellor of the nearby Girl Scout camp where Russ Lasch is chief cook and bottle washer and Verna Day and Miletta Hauer take charge of the livery stables.

Darlene Miller and Andy Honker are working to publish The Myerstown Gazette. On the capable staff are Marvin Kleinfelter, writing advice to the lovelorn, and Judy Schaeffer, illustrating her tips on dress and style. It carries daily Shirley Fullmer's syndicated column, "Aid to the Ailing Homemaker."

Franz Messerschmidt, first chair sousaphone booper for the Deutschmeister Band, is touring Germany and has just visited Professor Robert Lenge, head of the German department at Heidelberg University. Professor Lenge is still trying to teach Glenn Dreibelbis the differences between die, der, and das.

In New York City, Carole Wagner is setting up a rescue mission for mistreated Spanish students.

Joyce Wagner is doing a booming business in her Ford Auto Business. She is sure to send all her customers to Elaine Fig's Sunny Sunoco Station. Her chief mechanic is Gary Hibshman.

Ronald Wenrich and Corwin Erdman, winners of the Pennsylvania Safe Driving Contest, sponsored by the first woman governor, Pat Pfautz, are establishing a new taxi service, "We Drive You Anywhere, Anytime, Any Way."

Mary Ann Neiswender has just opened her exclusive dress shop, Potato Saks, Fifth Avenue, with branches in Kutztown, Weavertown, and Reistville. Seamstress of the shop is Stitch-a-Seam Diem.

Joan Krall, the psychiatrist of the year, is kept busy trying to analyze Charlotte Hoffman's gurgling giggle. Joan's right-hand girl, Pam Stechman, has finished publishing her book, "Don't Tell a Soul," adapted from Miss Krall's files.

Fred Strobel has just made another smashing sale of aluminum cookware to Myron Derr, proprietor of the Bronze Spittoon Cafe. In Myron's employment are: his most efficient "bouncer" Loucetta Houser; Sally Ressler, his British cigarette girl; and Sonia Bugg and Richard Walter as the successful "Mutt and Jeff" performers.

In the operating room of the Navy hospital, the atmosphere grows tense as head surgeon, Ralph Auchenbach, prepares to perform a delicate eyebrow operation on Tom Honker, the noted cartoonist of "Mad" magazine. Mabel Sadler, the capable nurse, is taking charge of the knife-sharpening detail. Covering this record-shattering operation is Kathryn Stauffer, author of the popular column, "The Woman and The Challenge."

Slenderella Suzanne Nitrauer has just returned from her weekly visit to Barbara Burkholder's Slim Jim Reducing Salon. This week's extra feature is a course entitled, "How to Be a Blonde—And Like It," by Sharon Lebo and Marlene Rhine.

Star of the Broadway hit, "I'll Cry a River," is Judy Dinger, who has just arrived at the plantation of gentleman farmer, John Hain. Her airplane pilot, Dave Walter, insisted on refueling in Maryland.

Carol Becker is now water girl for the Globegallopers, Yap Wagner and Stilts Keener.

Pickadilly Pickle Packing Palace President, Lee Saunders, now employs a secretary for each knee; they are Barbara Blatt and Mary Ann Wenrich. Among his other employees is Robert Hibshman, who is in charge of his mint.

Richard Kreiser is developing a miniature univac for overworked housewives at the request of two frustrated homemakers, Dorothy Williams and Joanne Boyer.

At the same laboratory, John Atkins and Noel Kopala are working on the complicated formula of water. Marian Mauser is just completing her experiments with "dingling temperatures."

George Brightbill and Betty Brown have the top clown act in Barnum and Bailey's three-ring circus. In the second ring, Christine Sweigart and Arlene Umberger are racing against time to complete a safety net before Ruth Long attempts her quadruple somersault with a three-quarter twist and a double pretzel from the trapeze.

SCHOOL SAFETY PATROLS

The Safety Patrol was organized in 1931 by Mr. Robert Mitchell. Mr. Snavelly was the second advisor and held this position for four years. This year the Hill School Safety Patrol has Miss Jane North as its advisor.

Each year the Myerstown patrols march in the annual Safety Patrol Parade which is held in Palmyra.

On the completion of a semester's service, the members receive a certificate and badge. Letters are given to Junior High members for their outstanding services.

The Patrol takes a traditional bus trip which is sponsored by the police department and the faculty advisors. These trips included Trexler Game Farm, Hershey Police Barracks, Lebanon County Jail, Miniature Village, Pennsylvania State Museum, and the State Capitol.

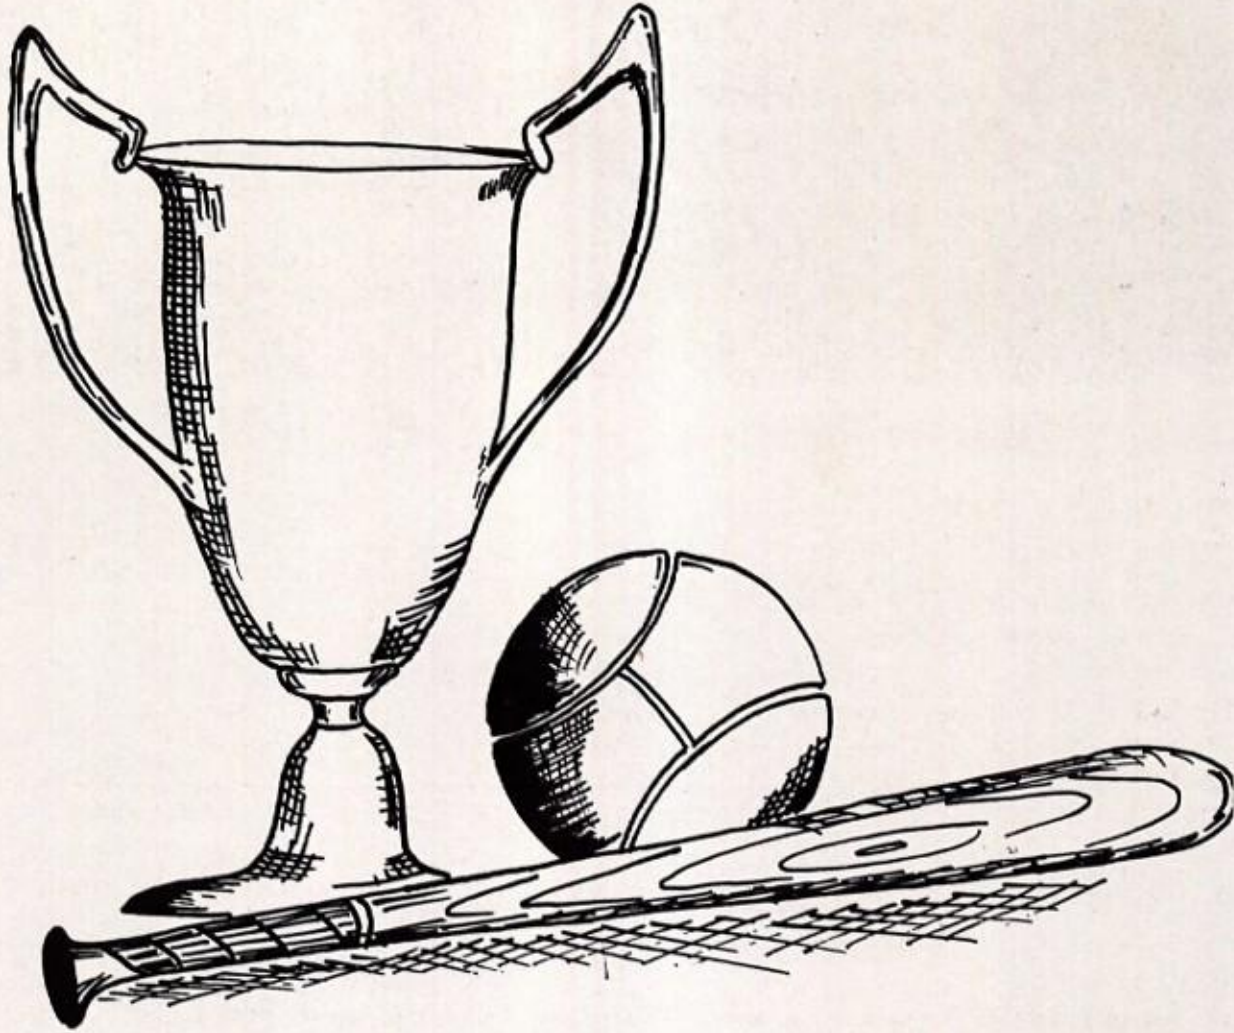

The Patrol proudly displays a record of no accidents or injuries to pupils on patrol-covered corners in twenty-nine years of service.

Myerstown	1	Elco	1

This year's record was three ties and two losses.

Although our girls' hockey team wasn't quite up to par this year, the girls still had enough spirit and energy to tie three games. We were the only team to tie Elco. We all wish the best of luck to next year's team.

The Sr. Tri-Hi-Y, a Christian organization, invites girls to become members. Seventy girls are now upholding the purpose of the Club—"Create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

It was organized in the school year of 1942-43 under Miss Betty Anne Rutherford's leadership. The following year with the help of Miss Esther Zug, they organized and coached a Tri-Hi-Y basketball team. This remained in effect until the Board hired a physical education teacher, who then organized a high school team.

In February of 1944, the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the first Valentine dance, an event that has become a tradition in our school. In this year Miss Rutherford left Myerstown and Miss Zug assumed full duties as advisor.

Miss Francene Swope became the leader when Miss Zug resigned in 1951-52. In 1953-54, Miss Welch took over leadership duties. In 1955-56 Mrs. Merrit Jeffers became leader and in 1956-57 Mrs. Lena Saunders became assistant advisor. In 1959-60, Mrs. Esther Zug Papson rejoined our Club and is advisor along with Mrs. Lena Saunders at present.

Some of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y's activities are: making Thanksgiving favors for the Old Folks' Home, Campfire service, the Christmas pageant, caroling through the halls at Christmas, Christmas parties for the first grade, the Valentine Dance, and active participation in the County Y Clubs.

In the first few copies of the paper, the title was written in hyphenated form, and its sub-title was "The Advocate of School Spirit." In its early years the paper, which cost only five cents, was published every two weeks by a staff consisting approximately of thirty-five members.

Mrs. Ruth Lantz, who became chief advisor of the Newsgram in 1948, is assisted by an advisory staff comprised of eight other teachers. The Newsgram, a monthly publication costing twenty-five cents, is published commercially and has many local patrons to help support it financially.

The main objective of the Newsgram is to help build a greater and better M. H. S. It accomplishes this aim by improving the material in each issue. The Newsgram staff, which consists of forty-six students and nine faculty members, does its job well in order to fulfill this objective.

Each member is required to produce a project of either crops or animals he has raised. Upon completion of the project, it is exhibited at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show in Harrisburg. For the musically inclined, it is possible to become a member of the F. F. A. state chorus or state band. Although a new club, they have taken part in many activities. The members made favors for George Washington's Birthday which were sent to the infirmaries and old folk's home. They saw films on nursing and heard a speaker from the Coatesville School of Nursing. They visited the Practical Nursing School in Lebanon and toured the Reading Hospital. Myerstown was represented by the members of the Club at the annual district meeting for future nurses.

Valentine Dance

QUEEN OF HEARTS DANCE

The traditional Queen of Hearts Dance was held Friday, February 12, 1960, at 8:00 p.m. The royal court, composed of senior students, was elected by the students in grades ten through twelve.

King Marvin Kleinfelter crowned lovely Charlotte Hoffman to reign over this gala affair as Queen of Hearts. Attending our royal couple were Maid of Honor, Judy Dinger and her escort Lee Saunders, Barbara Burkholder and Arthur Heilman, Sharon Lebo and Brian Wagner, Suzanne Nitrauer and Andrew Honker, and Pamela Stechman and Ralph Auchenbach. Kim Neiswender and Cindy Seager were the flower girls, and Kirby Oxenreider and Ricky Beyler were the trainbearers.

"Alice Meets the Queen," the theme of the dance, was carried out by a skit on "Alice in Wonderland," which was presented by Sandra Daniels as Alice, Glenn Hibshman and Gene Haag as Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee, and narrated by Ann Strauss. The Junior girls danced the traditional minuet to "Mozart's Minuet" played by Nadine Donley. Sally Ressler then played a piano solo—"Theme from the Warsaw Concerto," which was followed by a vocal selection by Kathryn Stauffer entitled "Ich Liebe Dich." Samuel Dabich, a Lebanon violinist, who was accompanied on the piano by his wife, played "Fascination" and "Etude." The presentation of former royalty, a new addition to the program, followed this musical interval. Darlene Miller served as emcee for the festivities.

After the entertainment portion of the program, an officer from each class presented gifts to the Royal couple, and Elaine Feeg and Mary Ann Wenrich presented the flower girls and trainbearers with gifts from the Senior Tri-Hi-Y.

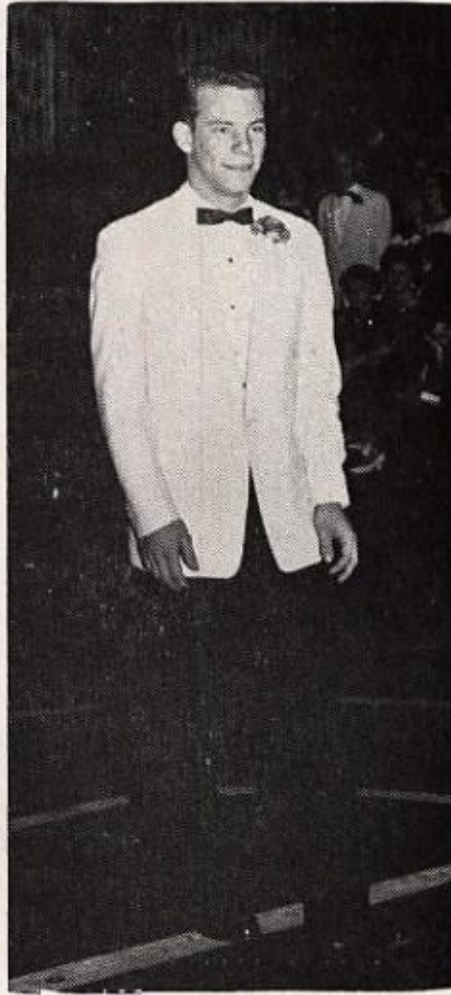

Saxie Schollenberger and his orchestra provided the music for the Royal Dance after which everyone was invited to dance to their rhythmical interpretations of many well-known melodies.

The dance was sponsored by the Senior Tri-Hi-Y and supervised by its advisors, Mrs. Papson and Mrs. Saunders.
